

A Comparison Of Candidates

W. A. Mitchell is a candidate for constable of precinct No. 1, being the El Paso precinct. He is opposed by Domingo Montoya, a cigarmaker by trade, and a native of El Paso county. An unbiased comparison of the records of the two candidates is invited. Montoya is making the race upon his merits. He is an earnest, sincere man of unquestioned character and integrity. He has from his youth earned a living by dint of honorable toil. He has reared a large family, with whom he spends his nights. He has strived to educate his children and make them worthy men and women. More than this can be said of few men, if of any.

Domingo Montoya, Candidate for Constable.

W. A. Mitchell has had a long career as a police officer in this city. For several years past he has been commissioned as a deputy sheriff, but has not been on the sheriff's pay roll. Like many who have held office, he wants another, leaving lost the one he had. As a deputy sheriff he is not known to have performed any service in that capacity, unless the testimony he gave on behalf of Max Miller, on trial for murder at Abilene, can be called a service. The people of El Paso have not forgotten the killing of young Turley by Max Miller, and the public, at the time of Miller's acquittal at Abilene, bitterly resented the acts of those deputies from the sheriff's office who went to Abilene to testify in behalf of Miller's good reputation in this city. It was well known that Miller frequently had trouble prior to the killing, and that he had paid at least one fine for whipping his wife.

The official transcript of the stenographer's notes of Mr. Mitchell's testimony at Abilene shows that Mitchell was a witness for the defendant. The testimony as given by him at that time is, in part, as follows:

Q. Where do you live?
A. In El Paso.
Q. Are you an officer?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What officer?
A. Deputy sheriff, now.
Q. How long have you known Mr. Miller?
A. About thirteen years.
Q. To what extent have you known him; intimately or otherwise?
A. The last seven or eight years I have known him pretty intimately.
Q. Do you know the general reputation there in El Paso, did you know it, prior to this trouble, of Mr. Miller, as to whether or not he was a law-abiding and peaceable citizen, or otherwise?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was that reputation?
A. His reputation was good.

The foregoing is but a small portion of the testimony given by Mitchell in behalf of the defendant. His testimony in full may be seen at Democratic headquarters on South Stanton street.

Mitchell does not now hold any office other than that of deputy sheriff. He is not to be confused with R. A. Mitchell, present constable. The latter will not be a candidate in the Democratic primaries.

Domingo Montoya is deserving in every way of the office he seeks. He has the confidence and esteem of all who know him. A vote for him will be a vote in the interest of good citizenship.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, sweaty feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jeffersonville, TIZ DID IT. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs one foot at a time. She has not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes." No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale by all druggists, 25c per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter L. Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended and sold by Knoblauch Drug Co., Inc.

YEE KING PLEADS FOR COUNTRYMAN.

Hofficker Gets Continuance. Judge Lea Hears Many Cases.

After several yards of Chinese had been torn off by one Yee King and his interpreter, Judge Lea allowed the Yee boy to go Monday afternoon without the usual police court sentence in the way of a small fine. Officers Caplinger and Miller arrested two China boys on suspicion of being in this country without the necessary papers. The arrest was made at the Sheldon hotel and when the aliens were placed under arrest, Yee King demanded that they be turned loose, as they were cousins of his. Officer "Cap" could not see it that way and took them to the police station.

With the assistance of an interpreter, Yee told his story in Chinese. Judge Lea listened to the recital of the Chinaman's woes and after giving him a lecture turned him loose.

The case of L. W. Hofficker, charged with fighting, was called and after Hofficker stated his case he was allowed to go on his own recognizance until Tuesday afternoon.
